

EACH CANDIDATE CLAIMS MAJORITY?

Howell Men Declare That They
Have Most of Delegates
Named Last Night.

BUT CHRISTENSEN SAYS "NO."

Meetings Were Peaceful and Good Natured in the Main With Little or No Trouble at All.

The Republican primaries for Salt Lake county were held last night in 41 city districts and 44 county districts. The list of delegates is now known, and all that remains to be known, to tell who will get the Republican nominations, is how the men are going to vote. The only fight in the primaries was to land friends of either Howell or Christensen for Congress. Both men claim enough of their friends were landed on the delegations to secure a nomination when the time comes in the convention.

The Eleventh district, in which Parley P. Christensen lives, went for him by a fair lead. Thos. Hobday and Geo. C. Buckle being chosen over A. B. Elder and John Meyerhofer to do the voting in the next convention. In Bingham there was a decided Christensen flavor to the delegation, as the fight there is between Editor Robinson of the Bingham Bulletin, who was manager of Christensen's boom, and former Mayor Anderson, who worked for Howell. Four out of five delegates named are from the Robinson camp, it is said. In Salt Lake the delegations seem fairly well split up, prominent friends of both candidates being noticed through the lists. The delegates chosen are as follows:
